Hello Dr. Yousef Zreagat

Greetings.

Thank you for your inquiry. you can use our photo collection for your publication. as you have noted. however. we ask that you must cite the Library of Congress as your source for each and every one of these photos.

If you are able and willing to do that. then you are welcome to use them.

I hope this answers your question.

Best Regards.

Question History:

Patron: I have seen your digital images for photo collection about Jarash since 1998 .

Your website makes it clear that it is allowed to copy as there is no copy rights .

If it is so. I will include them in Jarash encyclopedia that I appointed by Jarash Municipality as a GM for this project lading a team of about 40 academics and experts .

Please confirm this with a commitment to show the copy rights in the digital and printed version of (Jarash Encyclopedia .(

Please consider this as a legal commitment to show clearly (American Colony Collection) with every single photo and in the references

I look forward to seeing your answer .

With respect and appreciation and respect

DR. Yousef Rasheed Zreagat
